State Officer Contract and Code of Conduct

As a state officer of SkillsUSA, you have the responsibility to represent all members of the organization. Your conduct must be exemplary at all times while representing the organization, as well as, on your personal time. You will have an opportunity to meet students, advisors, administrators, business, industry, and legislators during your term in office. Your actions will set a standard for all SkillsUSA members to follow. When you sign this State Officer Contract, it should be with the understanding that your obligations are great, as are the rewards of serving your fellow members. You will also be reaffirming the ideals of SkillsUSA.

As a state officer of SkillsUSA Nebraska, I agree to adhere to the following code of conduct:

1. My conduct shall be exemplary at all times.
2. I will, at all times, respect all public and private property, including the hotel in which I am housed.
3. I will spend each night in the room of the hotel in which I am assigned.
4. I will keep my advisor or assigned state SkillsUSA staff persons informed of my whereabouts at all times.
5. I will strictly abide by the curfew established and shall respect the rights of others by being as quiet as possible after curfew.
6. I will not enter a sleeping room of the opposite gender without the supervision of an advisor.
7. I will not use any type of alcoholic beverages, tobacco products, or any other drugs. If you should have been ordered to take certain prescription drugs by a licensed physician you should report such orders to your advisor or State Director.
8. Attendance at school is mandatory anytime it is in session. Grades must be kept at an above average level; a 2.5 minimum GPA. All work missed while on SkillsUSA business will be made up in a timely manner.
9. I will attend all sessions of any event where I represent SkillsUSA Nebraska.
10. I will adhere to the dress code set by the State Director during the SkillsUSA events
11. I will adhere to the Internet Code of Conduct.
12. I will, as an elected officer, attend the State Officer meeting following the Awards Ceremony at State Conference.

Penalties- Violations of the Code of Conduct may be grounds for disqualification or suspension from an activity or office. The violator may be sent home at his/her own expense. Proper notification of the violation and action will be sent to the appropriate authority, school administrator and parents/guardians.

Internet Code of Conduct

As an officer for SkillsUSA, you are a public figure. As an officer you represent your school, your state association and the National SkillsUSA Association. As you post content to personal and public and other sites, keep in mind that people you do not know (including potential employers or admissions officers) have the ability to review and archive information. Be sure your personal materials, including comments, photographs, video or sound files, would not embarrass you if they were viewed by SkillsUSA staff, business partners or instructors and are age appropriate.

E-mail addresses: If your personal email address does not project a professional image, create a new email address for any SkillsUSA correspondence. Be sure to check email daily during your term of office as most communication between you and the State Office occurs via e-mail.

As an officer of SkillsUSA, you will represent SkillsUSA Nebraska with respect. This means for your term of office, any content you post on the internet where SkillsUSA is mentioned on sites will be reviewed by an advisor, parent, or state director. Your e-mail address used for SkillsUSA business may be reviewed by any authorized adults such as a parent/guardian. Please understand that these websites will be monitored and you may be requested to remove material.

If a state officer fails to do so and post inappropriate or unapproved material, he/she will be on probation as an officer and subject to the consequences as a state officer for violating the State Officer Code of Conduct.
